Supporting Evidence: It is alleged Mr. Seymour is in violation of special condition number 1 by having a physical interaction with D.W. at her residence, the victim in his underlying offense, on or around October 24, 2024.

According to the police report filed by the Spokane Tribal police, incident 24-0575, Spokane Tribal police went to the residence of D.W., located in Fruitland, Washington, to locate Mr. Seymour on his outstanding warrant. A Spokane Tribal officer observed Mr. Seymour standing outside the residence. An officer proceeded to the back of the residence with knowledge of Mr. Seymour fleeing from law enforcement. The victim, D.W., was present at the home and allowed law enforcement inside the residence. D.W. told officers Mr. Seymour was not in the home multiple times. Mr. Seymour was observed hiding in a closet. He was given verbal directives to show his hands, and Mr. Seymour did not move. Officers gained control of Mr. Seymour and stood him up on his feet and he was placed under arrest. At no time was Mr. Seymour given permission by the undersigned officer to have contact with his victim, D.W.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court to incorporate the violation(s) contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violation(s) previously reported to the Court.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
